

Lesson / Speech #1: How To Introduce Yourself In One Minute In English At Events

Example 1: Speech 1 – Rosa Siles – Persei vivarium

“Hi I´m Rosa Siles from Persei vivarium, a disruptive digital health company.

We work with clinical experts and physicians.

Who have a problem with managing the daily clinical practice in a structured and useful way.

What we do is to provide a technological platform that allows them to manage the main processes in health: such as diagnosis, treatment and follow up.

So that they can extract precious information like KPIs, quality indicators and big data.

Which means a great understanding of key pathologies for doctors, researchers and the pharma industry.

At Persei we have a digital mantra, "data really improves lives".

Example 2: Speech 1 – Christopher Wright - The English Training Company:

“Hi I´m Christopher Wright from The English Training Company, we help professionals to speak, meet and present in English with confidence!

We work with busy managers and professionals that need to work more and more in English.

Who have a problem with speaking, meeting and presenting in English with confidence and effectiveness with international customers and suppliers.

What we do is we use our 15-20 years experience as managers and professionals to design Business English classes and skills intensives that offer real business practice and instant 360 feedback with experts.

So that your professionals get a lot of real business practice without making expensive mistakes.

Which means that your company can feel confident of achieving both its international and domestic sales targets by having the confidence to work with any international clients and suppliers”.
